Product idea.

The elegant answer to versatile lounge spaces.

- Sculptural elegance in aluminium
- Striking, lightweight table range for lounge and waiting areas
- Available in three heights and sizes, allowing the side tables to be nested within one another or used individually as standalone coffee tables
- Varied design options thanks to seven coating colours
- Easy to clean due to the seamless construction

comos showcases sculptural elegance in aluminum and is designed for lounge and waiting areas with a calm atmosphere. The tabletop seamlessly connects with curved aluminum panels that form the two table legs. The result is a minimalist, joint-free construction with a clear visual impact and easy maintenance.

Three heights, one system.

Available in three heights and sizes, the side tables can be used individually or nested together as a set alongside armchair and sofa arrangements. A wide range of coating colors allows for creative freedom in interior design.
